Objectives

The fund is passively managed. INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE: The aim is for your investment to reflect the performance of the FTSE China A-H 50 index (index) which reflects the performance of the 50 largest companies incorporated in the People's Republic of China (PRC) and traded on the Shanghai or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange. DESCRIPTION OF INDEX: Each company will be represented either by its A-share (that is the share listed on the Shanghai or the Shenzhen Stock Exchange) and traded in Renminbi or by its H-share (that is the share listed on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong (SEHK) and traded in Hong Kong dollars. INDEX REBALANCING, CALCULATION AND ADMINISTRATION: The index is calculated in onshore Renminbi (CNY). The index is a price return index, which means that dividends which may have been paid out on any shares are not included in the index returns. The index is reviewed and adjusted quarterly. INVESTMENT POLICY: To achieve the aim, the fund will attempt to replicate the index, before fees and expenses, by buying all the securities in the index either through the Investment Manager's RQFII investment licence or through Stock Connect, which are investment programs that connects the Shanghai Stock Exchange and the SEHK and the Shenzhen Stock Exchange and SEHK. The fund may receive income in respect of the securities held by the fund. The fund may employ techniques and instruments in order to manage risk, reduce costs and improve results. These techniques and instruments may include the use of financial contracts (derivatives).
